

FROM PERTH TRAIN STATION

OPTION A

From the train platform, take the escalators and exit the station via the Barrack Street exit. Turn left onto Barrack/Beaufort Street, cross over Roe Street and continue to the Red Tourist Bus Stop that is located near the James Street intersection.

OPTION B

From the train platform, take the escalators and exit the station via the Roe Street overpass. Continue into the Perth Cultural Centre and turn right into the James Street Pedestrian Mall. When you reach Beaufort Street turn right and the Red Tourist Bus Stop will be in front of you.

Notes that may assist:

Beaufort Street is simply a continuation of Barrack Street - it changes name after Roe St.

If you are not arriving by train, you can also get there via the BLUE CAT bus which stops 20 metres from this pick up point (get off at the WA Museum Boola Bardip stop).
